

Quarter 1 Self-Reflection

Due: Monday, November 8

Your final assignment for 1st quarter is to complete a reflection of the vocal progress you have made over the course of 1st quarter. This assignment will need to be completed online. Please follow the step by step instructions below.

1. Go to <http://bayportchoir.bpworks.com>
2. Locate the sidebar (right side of screen) and scroll down to 'Additional Links'. Towards the bottom of the list you will see 'Student Portal'. Open this link.
3. On this screen select your graduating year. This will take you to a new screen where you will need to log in.
4. Log into the wiki page. The log in button is in the upper right-hand corner of the screen. Use the username (your name lower case, first and last no spaces) and password (student id#) that were given to you along with this handout.
5. You will now see a list of names. Find your name and open your wiki page.
6. Listen to your first recording of the year (Homeward Bound, When You Believe or the National Anthem).
7. Listen to at least 1 recording from your vocal assessment (your choice, if possible listen to the same song as before).
8. In the comment box at the bottom of the screen - type in your responses to the questions below. When you are finished typing, click submit.
 - a. Describe what you heard in your first recording of the year.
 - b. Describe what you heard in the recording(s) from your vocal assessment.
 - c. Based on what you just listened to in what ways if any has your singing improved over the course of 1st Quarter?
 - d. If you did not hear any improvement why do you think no progress was made?
 - e. What do you want to work on for 2nd Quarter?
